Shout Outs

A big thank you to parents and children this week for all the fantastic chocolate donations towards the Christmas Fair!

Emails

I have updated the emails at the bottom of the page as Halton have given us all slightly different ones. Unfortunately the process has not gone as smoothly as it could have and many schools have had problems with new addresses. If you do email and don't receive a response then please feel free to call.

Young Carers

We had an assembly on Monday from the Young Carers team in Halton. They shared with children information about what a Young Carer is and how they could support. If you are living with a disability, mental health issues or drug related issues then please do check to see if you qualify. Information can be found here <https://haltoncarers.co.uk/young-carers/> or you can call in for a leaflet. It's worth checking, just in case.
